

PORTLAND METRO BEEKEEPERS ASSOCIATION BEE DAY 2023

SATURDAY, MAY 13TH 2023 8:30AM-3PM

CHECK IN 8:30-9AM

Attendance limited to 150 people – limited parking available

Pre-registration by May 10th deadline: $35 ($20/person additional family members)

Each registration includes 1 lunch. “Additional family members” may include one partner/significant other and up to 3 children under the age of 21. Must be ordered & paid at time of registration.

Day-of registration subject to attendance limit. Pre-registration highly recommended.

Location: Foothills Honey Farm

30576 South Oswalt Rd
Colton, OR 97017

This is an active honeybee farm. Please NO smoking and NO pets.

Bring a lawn or camp chair (low-back preferred) for your comfort during presentations

GEAR: If you don't have a bee suit, bring or wear long pants, long sleeves, hoodie to cover hair, & garden or dishwashing gloves for protection. Consider rain gear and warm clothes, sun hat, & umbrella. Closed toe shoes recommended. There will be a limited number of bee veils and suits to check out.

Complimentary snacks, water, coffee, and tea provided. Bring your own refillable water bottle or non-alcoholic beverages.

8:30am Welcome

9:00-10:00 1st Session: John Rockrohr, Our Biz is Bees: What to Expect Your 1st Year of Beekeeping
- 15 min break -

10:15-11:15 2nd Session: Hive Inspection – all attendees out to the hives

11:15-12:15 LUNCH & Mid-Day Raffle

12:15-1:15 3rd Session: Dr. Ramesh Sagili, Associate Professor-Apiculture at Oregon State University
- 15 min break -

1:30-2:30 4th Session: Hive Inspection – all attendees out to the hives

2:30 Closing and Raffle

All Day: Q&A Table – “Ask a Beekeeper”

Beekeeping Vendor Booths:

Register Online at <https://PortlandMetroBeekeepers.org>